

Paul James
Council Member
Term Expires: 2023

About Paul James

I am a firm believer in individual rights and finds the mentality of collectivism abhorrent in all its forms. I believe that for a community to thrive, not only must the government be transparent and willing to listen to its citizens, but that the citizens also need to be allowed the freedom to make their own decisions regarding their personal lives. I also believe that more opportunities for the citizens will lead to more prosperity for the community as a whole.